When nighttime comes
and no more light,
you get in bed;
we say good night.

But when it's dark,
and I can't see—
Why do you say
good night to me?

It's not the same
when there's no light.
The dark's not good.
I don't like night.

I'm glad you told me how you feel.
But stop to think,
What else is real?

The Lord made day.
The Lord made night.
So even dark
is good and right.
