

The colors in this basket are my own special way for me to tell the story of that first Easter Day.

The green inside my basket is like the palms that lay . . .

... upon the ground for Jesus for His parade one day.

The purple in my basket
reminds me of the time . . .

